PRESS RELEASE

CAMDEN MAN INDICTED ON CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

Colm F. Connolly, United States Attorney for the District of Delaware, announced today that Scott David Robinson, age 51, of Camden, Delaware, was indicted today on child pornography charges. The indictment¹ charges 11 counts of distribution of child pornography and 12 counts of receipt, committed during the period October 27, 2006, through February 4, 2007. Each offense is punishable by not less than five years and not more than twenty years incarceration and a $250,000 fine. The indictment also charges one count of possession of child pornography, punishable by a maximum penalty of ten years incarceration and a $250,000 fine.

The indictment is the result of a joint investigation conducted by the Delaware State Police, High Tech Crimes Unit, and the Wilmington Office of the FBI, working in conjunction with FBI offices in Houston, Texas, and Indianapolis, Indiana, into allegations that Robinson was distributing child pornography from Delaware to other parts of the country. The indictment is brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, the United States Department of Justice created Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal,
